Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. The prior rejection of claim 93 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Feng et al. 1991 is withdrawn in view of applicants' amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. (NEW GROUNDS OF REJECTION) Claim 93 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The specification as original filed provides no support for an antibody which binds to a polypeptide having the biological activity of a prostate specific membrane antigen with the proviso that the antibody is not the 7E11-C5 monoclonal antibody.

Any negative limitation or exclusionary proviso must have basis in the original disclosure. See Ex parte Graselli, 231 USPQ 393 (Bd. Pat. App. 1983) aff'd mem., 738F.2d 453 (Fed. Cir. 1984).

Art Unit: 1645

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
